

Privacy Policy and Disclaimer

Last updated: August 14, 2026 · Effective date: August 14, 2026

This Privacy Policy and Disclaimer (the "Policy") governs your use of the website yesfollower.com (the "Website"). In this Policy, "we", "us", and "our" mean the operator of the Website. By accessing or using the Website in any way, you confirm that you have read, understood, and accepted this Policy in full. If you do not agree with any part of it, please leave the Website and do not use it.

1. Entertainment Purposes Only

The Website is provided strictly for entertainment, novelty, and general informational purposes only.

Every counter, number, score, rating, estimate, ranking, analysis, generated text, or other output shown on the Website is produced automatically by templates and general-purpose algorithms. It is not verified, not accurate, not scientific, not audited, and carries no factual, predictive, or evidential value of any kind.

Nothing on the Website constitutes professional advice, and it must never be relied upon as such — including marketing, business, financial, investment, legal, technical, security, medical, or psychological advice. Consult a qualified licensed professional before making any decision that affects your money, your business, your legal position, your accounts, or your wellbeing.

You use the Website entirely at your own risk, and you alone are responsible for anything you do or decide on the basis of it.

2. No Results Are Promised

The Website does not sell, deliver, guarantee, or promise followers, subscribers, likes, views, engagement, reach, visibility, growth, or any other outcome on any social media platform or online service. No result of any kind is guaranteed, expressly or by implication. Any figure, projection, or example shown is illustrative only and must not be understood as a forecast of what you will achieve.

3. No Affiliation with Third-Party Platforms

The Website is an independent project. It is not affiliated with, endorsed by, sponsored by, certified by, or in any way officially connected to any social media platform, application, brand, or company referenced on it, including without limitation Instagram, Meta, Facebook, TikTok, YouTube, X (Twitter), Snapchat, Telegram, Threads, LinkedIn, Pinterest, Twitch, or Google. All trademarks, trade names, and logos belong to their respective owners and appear solely for identification and descriptive purposes under nominative fair use.

You are solely responsible for ensuring that your use of anything on the Website complies with the terms of service, community guidelines, and platform rules of any third-party service you use, as well as with all laws applicable to you. We accept no responsibility of any kind for any consequence of your use of the Website, including account restriction, shadowban, suspension, permanent ban, loss of content, loss of followers, loss of monetisation, or any measure taken against you by a third-party platform.

4. Never Share Your Credentials

The Website never requires and will never legitimately ask for the password, PIN, two-factor code, recovery code, session token, or API key of any of your accounts. Do not enter such information anywhere on the Website or on any page that claims to be connected with it. If you are ever prompted for credentials, treat it as fraudulent, stop immediately, and do not proceed. We bear no responsibility for any loss arising from credentials you disclose to anyone.

5. No Warranties

The Website and all of its content, tools, and features are provided "AS IS" and "AS AVAILABLE", with all faults and without warranty of any kind, whether express, implied, statutory, or otherwise. To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, we disclaim all warranties, including implied warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, accuracy, completeness, currency, non-infringement, and any warranty arising from course of dealing or usage of trade.

In particular, we do not warrant that: the Website will be available, uninterrupted, timely, secure, or free of errors, viruses, or other harmful components; that any output will be accurate, complete, or fit for any purpose; or that any defect will be corrected. We may change, limit, suspend, or discontinue the Website or any part of it at any time, without prior notice and without any liability.

6. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, we and everyone acting on our behalf accept no responsibility and shall have no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage arising out of or connected with your access to, use of, or inability to use the Website, or your reliance on any content or output obtained from it. This exclusion covers, without limitation, direct, indirect, incidental, special, consequential, exemplary, and punitive damages; lost profits, revenue, business, opportunities, goodwill, reputation, followers, audience, or data; account loss or suspension; device or software damage; and emotional distress — regardless of whether the claim is framed in contract, tort (including negligence), strict liability, statute, or any other theory, and regardless of whether the possibility of such loss was foreseeable or notified.

Where liability cannot lawfully be excluded, our total aggregate liability for all claims connected with the Website is limited to the greater of (a) the amount you actually paid us in the twelve months before the event giving rise to the claim, or (b) USD 10.

Nothing here excludes or limits liability that cannot be excluded under applicable law, including liability for death or personal injury caused by proven negligence, for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or any mandatory statutory rights of consumers.

7. Information We Collect

7.1 Information you provide

- Data you type into any field, form, or tool on the Website — for example a public username, a public profile link, or free text.
- An email address or message content, if you choose to contact us.

Please do not submit sensitive personal information (health data, payment card details, government identifiers, precise location) or other people's personal data through the Website. Inputs are processed to produce an on-screen result and are not intended to be kept as an identifiable record.

7.2 Information collected automatically

- IP address (possibly truncated or anonymised), approximate country or region, and language preference.
- Browser type and version, operating system, device type, and screen size.
- Referring URL, pages viewed, clicks, session duration, and date and time of access.
- Standard server log entries, kept for security, abuse prevention, and troubleshooting.

7.3 Cookies and similar technologies

The Website may use cookies, local storage, pixels, and similar technologies to function correctly, remember preferences, measure traffic, and — where applicable — display advertising. Where the law requires it, non-essential cookies are placed only after you give consent through the cookie banner, and you may withdraw that consent at any time. You can also block or delete cookies in your browser settings; parts of the Website may then stop working.

8. How Information Is Used

- To operate, display, secure, and improve the Website and its features.
- To produce the entertainment output you requested.
- To analyse aggregated, non-identifying traffic and usage trends.
- To detect and prevent fraud, spam, scraping, and abuse.
- To display advertising, including interest-based advertising where permitted.
- To reply to messages you send us.
- To comply with legal obligations and to defend legal claims.

Personal information is not sold for money. Under some privacy laws (such as the CCPA/CPRA in California) the use of advertising or analytics cookies may nonetheless be classified as a "sale" or "sharing"; Sections 10 and 11 explain how to opt out.

9. Legal Bases for Processing (visitors in the EEA and UK)

- Consent — non-essential cookies, analytics, personalised advertising, optional messages.
- Legitimate interests — operating and securing the Website, preventing abuse, understanding aggregate usage.
- Legal obligation — where retention or disclosure is required by law.

Any output shown on the Website is generated automatically, but it produces no legal or similarly significant effect. No automated decision-making or profiling within the meaning of Article 22 GDPR is carried out.

10. Third-Party Services and External Links

The Website relies on third-party providers such as hosting and content delivery networks, analytics services (for example Google Analytics), and advertising networks (for example Google AdSense and its partners). These providers may set their own cookies and process data under their own privacy policies, which we neither control nor monitor.

Third-party vendors, including Google, may use cookies or device identifiers to show ads based on your previous visits to this or other websites. You can opt out of personalised advertising at Google My Ad Center, optout.aboutads.info, or youronlinechoices.eu. To opt out of Google Analytics measurement, you can install the Google Analytics Opt-out Browser Add-on.

The Website may link to or embed external resources. We do not endorse, control, review, or take any responsibility for external websites, their content, their products, their availability, or their privacy and security practices. Visiting them is entirely at your own risk and is governed by their rules, not ours.

11. Your Rights and Choices

Depending on where you live, you may have the right to request access to, correction of, or deletion of your personal data; to receive a copy of it; to object to or restrict certain processing; to withdraw consent at any time; and to opt out of targeted advertising or of the "sale"/"sharing" of personal information. Exercising these rights will never result in discriminatory treatment.

Requests can be sent to support@yesfollower.com. We may ask for information needed to verify the request, and we will respond within the period required by applicable law. Visitors in the EEA or UK may also lodge a complaint with their national data protection authority.

12. Data Retention

Personal data is kept only as long as necessary for the purposes described above or as required by law. Server logs and analytics records are retained for a limited period and then deleted or anonymised. Inputs submitted to tools are processed transiently and are not intended to be stored as identifiable records.

13. Security

Reasonable technical and organisational measures are applied to protect data. Nevertheless, no transmission over the Internet and no method of electronic storage is completely secure, and absolute security cannot be and is not guaranteed. Any data you transmit to the Website is transmitted at your own risk.

14. International Data Transfers

The Website is operated with servers and providers that may be located in different countries. By using it, you understand that information may be transferred to, stored in, and processed in a country other than your own, where data protection rules may differ. Where required, transfers rely on appropriate safeguards such as the European Commission's Standard Contractual Clauses.

15. Children

The Website is not directed at children and is not intended for them. Personal data is not knowingly collected from anyone under 13, or under 16 where local law sets a higher age. If you believe a child has provided personal data, contact us and it will be deleted promptly.

16. Do Not Track

Because there is no uniform industry standard for interpreting browser "Do Not Track" signals, the Website does not respond to them.

17. Changes to This Policy

This Policy may be updated at any time at our sole discretion. The updated version takes effect on the "Last updated" date shown at the top of this page. Continuing to use the Website after a change means you accept the revised Policy, so please review this page from time to time.

18. Severability

If any provision of this Policy is found invalid, unlawful, or unenforceable, it shall be modified to the minimum extent needed to make it enforceable, or severed if that is not possible, and all remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect. Mandatory consumer protection rules of your country of residence continue to apply where they cannot be waived by agreement.

19. Contact

Questions about this Policy, or requests concerning your data, can be sent by email to support@yesfollower.com.
